

Open Call For Dancers

Ceren Oran is looking for 15 dancers with strong contemporary techniques as well as improvisation skills for her new production in public spaces “The Urge”.

The dancers are asked to be based in or around one of these cities: Munich, Cologne and Berlin.

‘The Urge’ is aiming to have a closer look at the behavior of each individual during a collective crisis. Oran would like to transform the relation between the collective trauma and each person's unique way of dealing with it, into choreographic images. The performance is designed as a simultaneous public space performance in 3 cities and will create visibility for Contemporary Dance as a performance form and meet a broader audience in unexpected spaces.

Rehearsal and performance period for dancers based in Munich
1- 12 April & 3-8 May & 15-16 May

Rehearsal and performance period for dancers based in Cologne
26 April – 8 May

Rehearsal and performance period for dancers based in Berlin
26 April – 8 May

Please fill the following form if you are interested and available until 12th of February.
After submitting your form, you will be informed about the next steps of the audition by 15th of February.

The project is paid based on the Fair Pay regulations (Fair-Pay Richtlinien)
