What stories can be told through bodies that we usually don't see on stage? What expectations do we have from young & old as audience, creators, performers? How can we enrich each other through our mixed age groups? How different backgrounds of these human profiles can inspire a collective creative processes.

After 2 inspiring sessions on Filming Dance and Composing for Dance and Theatre, Ceren Oran & Moving Borders invite you to the third and the last Session of 2022 in Munich, where Galit Liss, choreographer (<https://en.galitliss.com>), Sanja Tropp Frühwald, choreographer and dancer (www.vrum.hr); Jasa Frühwald, performer & Paula Niehof dancer and choreographer, share their experiences about creating and working with intergenerational performer profiles as of age 7 to 99; in dialogue with the audience
The panel will be moderated by Simone Schulte Aladag.

The event is part of a three-day artistic gathering organized by Ceren Oran in Munich, supported by the TANZPAKT RECONNECT program.

Supported by DIEHL+RITTER/TANZPAKT RECONNECT, which is funded by the German Federal Government Commissioner for Culture and the Media as part of the NEUSTART KULTUR initiative. In cooperation with Tanztendenz, Giesingerbahnhof.
